About Southern Forests

With so much of the region being classified as national park, the Southern Forests region has some of the most pristine forests, dramatic coastlines and diverse flora and fauna to be found in Western Australia. The Southern Forests is home to over 50 wineries including certified organic wineries and microbreweries.

About WA Food & Wine Trails

Western Australia is blessed with a huge range of memorable food and drink experiences. The WA Food and Wine Trails provide you with a sample of what is available across the state. Make sure you look out for them on your travels.

Welcome to the Southern Forests

Take the road less travelled and discover the Manjimup and Pemberton Wine Regions – a hidden jewel in the Southern Forests of Australia's South West.

This largely undiscovered, unheralded area produces some of the finest cool climate wines to be had anywhere in the world. There is an eclectic range of cellar doors in spectacular settings where tranquil, unhurried wine tasting is on offer. Visitors can talk with the wine maker, grower or owner of the business at a leisurely pace with beautiful scenic drives traversing undulating orchards and farms, towering forests, lush pastures and blue skies in between.

The relaxed pace and the friendliness of the local people willing to give you their time, tell their stories and the history of the region will make the Southern Forests Wine Trail a unique experience.

These genuine, down to earth, family run wineries and cellar doors will bring you back to the romance of what the wine tasting experience used to be like once upon a time.

Visit the trails WA website at trailswa.com.au and download the TrailsWA app from the App Store to find more trails to explore.
